Hospitals of Regina Foundation welcomes
Lieutenant Governor, Bernadette McIntyre as honorary patron

April 9, 2025, Regina, Sask. – We are honoured and privileged to receive the support of Her Honour the Honourable Bernadette McIntyre, Lieutenant Governor of Saskatchewan, in the role of honorary patron.

Her Honour is widely known and appreciated for her volunteer leadership in our community. Her passion and vision to help others aligns with the Foundation’s vision to have a meaningful impact on the health of our southern Saskatchewan community. Ms. McIntyre has served on several boards and committees, including serving as Chair of the Sandra Schmirler Foundation, which provides ongoing support to the Foundation’s work in our neonatal intensive care unit (NICU) in the Rawlco Centre for Mother Baby Care, at Regina’s General Hospital.

"We are honoured to have received the patronage of the Lieutenant Governor of Saskatchewan, who is a dear friend of the Foundation and our southern Saskatchewan community," Hospitals of Regina Foundation President and CEO Dino Sophocleous says. "We are grateful for her support of our mission to create better lives for people in Regina and across southern Saskatchewan."
